

I am requesting that you do not weaken the Telephone Consumer Protection act. When at home we should have the option of not being disturbed.